President's Ponderings

Erik Osness
Interim President

My wife, Megan, likes to garden. I would say I do, too, but all I ever really help out with is the very occasional watering. Still, I really do like the idea of gardening. As neither a practitioner nor an expert, I often bring up gardening in casual conversation. Need more serotonin? You should garden! Need a hobby? Grow a garden! Want more nutritious food? Start growing your own vegetables! I continue to champion such things, even if I don't do much of it myself.

One parable I bring up often is "The Parable of the Sower," from Matthew 13. "Consider the sower who went out to sow," Jesus says (v.3). The seeds fall on the path, the rocky ground, and among the thorns, all of which producing poor results. But Jesus continues: "Still other seed fell on good ground and produced fruit: some hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times what was sown" (v.8). It is here that Jesus shows us that in order to bear good (and numerous) fruit, it's all about the soil. This parable reminds me what poet and priest, Malcom Guite, shared on this particular scripture. He mentioned that we tend to focus on the "sowing of seeds" part of the parable, but not the soil. He emphasized that the parable is not about us scattering the seeds, but it is about us being the soil and God (the "sower") being the one who sows the seeds.

When the seeds of the gospel fall on good soil, they produce fruit: "some a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times what was sown" (v.8). Now, I am no arithmetic expert, but that sounds like pretty good returns for Christ's kingdom! That is the kind of investment I want to take part in; the kind that creates and supports "fertile ground" (v.8), where one "hears and understands the word" (v.23).

For those familiar with CLBI, it does not come as a shock to hear that most young people today will not attend CLBI. However, another truth also remains: CLBI is "good soil" that helps young people become "good soil" for life. For over 90 years, CLBI has continued to surpass (and defy) expectations, and the faithful support we receive is truly the work of God.

Each summer, we work hard to upgrade and maintain our campus facilities. However, with donations slowing down this time each year, this is easier said than done. With that in mind, I want to challenge you, the CLBI supporters, to send your friends and family members to CLBI.

Our grads have go on to become nurses, pastors, homemakers, missionaries, carpenters, and politicians (to name a few). This fact alone is proof that taking a year or two of bible school does not stop young people from pursuing their career goals. In fact, I believe it helps them. Not only that, but rushing young people into a career is neither a guarantee, nor a magic formula for "getting ahead". Even as I enter my late thirties, many of my peers are becoming unsettled in their career paths.

As for my family, I see hope. The next generation has already matched my own with how many students it has sent to CLBI. Even in that alone, good fruit is coming from CLBI. So, we invite you now to rise to the occasion and help us bring more students to CLBI. Help us fill these halls with young people desiring to experience the hope and lasting impact of growing in "good soil". This is my prayer; for today, for the year, and for the future.

Grace, mercy, and peace,

Erik Osness
CLBI Interim President

Farewell to the Students

Dean Rostad
Former President

When I started this year, little did I know that this would be my last school year serving as President of CLBI. You all have been such a gift to each other, and a gift to me.

God has touched my life through this discipling community in profound ways. I am so proud that God has shaped this bizarre mix of individuals into a complex community of grace. The growth I have seen in all of you is miraculous. Jesus has been active in shaping you this whole year: in sinking canoes during Fall Hike, in heated theological hallway debates, in bible memorization, in Wednesday testimonies, in Zach's life-saving response to "help me" (Urban Hike), in a frozen road trip to Minnesota, to countless ukulele gatherings in the corner of caf-Jesus was in it all! Now, as you go from here, be confident that God who began a good work in you, is faithful to complete it. Be bold in your Kingdom ambitions, I know that God has many surprises left as to how He will do great things through and in you.

Your brother in Jesus,
Dean Rostad

IMPACT Program

Lisa Belau
IMPACT Director & Residence Life Director

Greetings everyone!

My name is Lisa Belau and I am excited to share that I will be taking on the role of IMPACT Director at CLBI this year! Along with being one of the current Residence Life Directors, it is a true delight and honour to serve the CLBI community in this way.

When I was a student at CLBI some 15 years ago, never would I have dreamed I'd get to do this. For the past 10 years I was able to go and serve in West Africa with a missions organization called World Team. Through this experience God has taught me so much about His great love for the global and local church. As I am taking a pause from long-term missions work for a season, I am looking forward to coming alongside the students here at CLBI as they learn and grow in their understanding of God's heart for them and for all nations.

The CLBI IMPACT program is such an incredible part of the second year experience, and one area I am particularly excited for is working with the second year students in planning and preparing for their cross-cultural mission trips. I will never forget my own IMPACT team and the adventures we had in Jamaica when I was at CLBI back in 2011. It was my first time flying, being away from home for that length of time, and stepping so far out of my comfort zone. I am proud to say that God was, and is, so incredibly faithful!

Another aspect of this role that I am looking forward to is getting to work with our wonderful partners at World Mission Prayer League (WMPL). WMPL has been a partner ministry of CLBI for a number of years, primarily in regards to the support and coordination of the IMPACT trips.

This partnership is a beautiful example of how the local and global church can compliment and uphold one another, so I consider it a privilege to be able to be involved in such a meaningful ministry.

From my perspective, I see the CLBI IMPACT program as a bridge that enables us to live out the great commission with our national brothers and sisters in Christ (Matthew 28:16-20). Not only is it about sharing the love of God with the lost and unreached, it also involves us learning how to receive God's love for ourselves. In 1 John 4:19, it states that "We love because He (God) first loved us". As I read this verse, it brings to mind the fact that through opportunities like the CLBI IMPACT program, we get to see what that love looks like in our own lives, which speaks volumes in how we live it out to those around us. This is the reality in which we live, both at home and in every nation around the world. Now, this is not an easy journey to walk, but it is good because He (God) is Good! One day at a time, I trust that the Lord will continue to transform all of us through the power of his blood and the kindness and might of His unconditional love.

To support the ongoing work of this incredible program here at CLBI, please pray for the our students, staff, and the amazing team at WMPL as we all work together for the glory of God. Pray that wherever we go, we would be known as Christ-followers by how we allow Christ to love through us. Thank you so much for your support. I look forward to witnessing what God will do through your prayers, and may God bless you and keep you in His peace.

Lisa Belau
IMPACT Director & Student Life Director

A Vision for Our Facility

Tyler Adam
Director of Maintenance

Since taking the role as Director of Maintenance here at CLBI back in January (2025), I have been really encouraged by the conversations about the future of CLBI.

There is life, faith, and deep relationships being forged here in our humble institution. I am incredibly excited about how the Lord is moving here.

Admittedly, in my short time being on staff (6 months), it has become clear to me that while seeking to fulfill our mission of helping young people become disciples of Christ, the campus and its facilities are not being fully utilized to grow, teach, and lead the church into greater unity. From the weekly men's bible study group that meets each Thursday, to the monthly WMPL prayer meetings, I have seen first-hand how our campus can be used to inspire and foster unity. We believe that the CLBI campus serves as the perfect place for a variety of different groups and ministries, including: camp AGMs, board meetings, bible studies, seminars, conferences, prayer meetings, ministerials, youth groups, grief shares, freedom sessions, and more. If we believe that the body of Christ does indeed need more fellowship and unity, then the CLBI campus is a natural solution to achieve such things. This is our invitation.

While we do take great pride in our little Lutheran campus here in the heart of Camrose, we also see that, in its current state, there is a growing number of areas that are in dire need of a serious upgrade. One primary area is the lack of handicap accessibility around campus and its outdated and unwelcoming meeting spaces. My hope is that in the near future we will be able to steward our facilities and grounds in a way that better serves Christ and honours our community of neighbours, alumni, supporters and the local body of Christ. With that in mind, our proposal is for a three-phased project to be completed over the next 2-3 years.

We desire to foster great memories for another 93 years—not only for our students, but for our supporters, alumni and the greater community as well. For this to come together, we look to you, our supporters, for your help. The two primary areas of support we are asking for financial donations and volunteer support. With the CLBI campus being built and sustained by our incredibly generous extended community, we are excited to partner with you through this next season of our ministry and vision.

While this is most certainly a major proposal for the community of CLBI, it will by no means be the only project happening on campus. For instance, one project that is currently underway is the revitalization of our exterior grounds, including planting new flower beds, removing/replacing trees and foliage, and landscaping upgrades. We are also in the planning stages of preparing for new campus signage and refreshing and repairing our symbolic CLBI sculpture. All are welcome to stop by to say hello and share your thoughts on how we can make the CLBI campus even more beautiful. We are always looking for volunteers, so if you and some friends want to help out, please contact the CLBI office. It would be deeply appreciated and would be a huge help to me as well.

Thank you for your support and for your love of the mission of discipleship here at CLBI. If there are ways that our campus can be of use to you, please inquire.

Three Phases of Campus Renewal

PHASE 1:

Conference Room & Meeting Space

We desire to develop a high quality, multi-purpose space available to the greater community of CLBI. In order to reach this goal, we believe that a complete overhaul of the CLBI conference room is in order. This would include an entirely new aesthetic: new wall colors, flooring, furnishings, and lighting, as well as any necessary sound dampening installations for a more engaging and versatile meeting space.

PHASE 2:

Bathroom & Ease of Access

Along with the newly updated conference room comes another needed upgrade: the 1st floor bathrooms in Hagen Hall. While I sit at my desk looking out at these washrooms, I am reminded daily of how inaccessible and unappealing these washrooms are; not only for our guests, but for our staff and students as well. This project will include updating wall colors, flooring, fixtures, plumbing, countertops, and lighting. To help us reach these objectives, the following two options have proposed for us to pursue:

Option 1:

2 large bathrooms, both with full handicap-accessibility.

Option 2:

1 handicap-accessible family bathroom + 2 smaller individual bathrooms.

PHASE 3:

First Floor & Kitchen Update

Over the history of CLBI, we have been incredibly blessed to be able to help students and community members come to a greater understanding of the gospel message and a deeper relationship with Christ. Often, as we alumni think about our time at CLBI, our memories often unify around one specific place on campus. Whether it's the fond memory of seeing your future spouse for the first time, or the haunting reminder of weiner water soup, the true hub of life at CLBI campus is none other than the cafeteria.

Our plan for the cafeteria is to fully update all flooring through the lower floor of the main building, and increase the ease of access from the south side so that our whole main floor – extending to the bathrooms – will be handicap-accessible. The kitchen update will also include new serving counters and window, updating and replacing the dishwasher, installation of an extraction hood that meets code compliance, new wall colors and flooring, and an updated walk-in freezer and fridge.

To help raise necessary funds, CLBI will be selling the following items:

- 40 ft SeaCan (qty 1)
- 40 ft Insulated, wired SeaCan (qty 1)

Request for Donation:

30-60 gallon Electric Air Compressor

If you or anyone you know are interested in buying a SeaCan from CLBI or have a electric air compressor to donate, please call the CLBI Office at 780-672-4454 or email us at info@clbi.edu.
